

Silent Viewing

How good are you at lip-reading? Watch the scene from 03:52 to 04:49 but keep the sound turned off. How's it going for Nino? Afterwards, try to guess what's happening in the scene and write it down under the photos.

Step 1

Watch the scene without sound. What do the facial expressions tell you about the characters? Describe their facial expressions and guess how they might feel. Check your ideas with your neighbour.

Step 2

What are they saying? Watch the scene again without sound. Try to read the characters' lips. Then write down what they might be saying. Compare your findings with your partner.

Language support

In this scene... – It seems to me that... – Looking at...’s facial expression, I would say that... – ...might be saying something like „...“ – Apparently,... is feeling/thinks... – In this situation,... – His body language shows that... – His reaction is... – From the way he tilts his head I can tell... – ... looks at.../in ... direction. That shows...