

Watching the film

While watching the film take down notes on what you see and hear.

Scotland has coast on _____ sides:
 _____ mountains and almost _____ islands.

Kelburn Castle lies on _____ The Boyle family has lived here _____
 To pay for the upkeep of the castle, David and his father organize _____

The Scottish Highlands are _____ high.
 Near Killiecrankie the Scots act out _____

Scotland and England were rivals _____ In 1603 the English had no king for their throne, so the Scottish _____
 85 years later the English parliament replaced the Catholic King James II with the Protestant _____
 The Catholic highlanders rebelled against _____ _____ and fought a battle against _____

In 1707 England and Scotland were united and _____