

solution

- Nino and Hannes arrive at No. 2 Silverleaf Gardens but nobody opens the door.
- They try to telephone their landlady but she does not answer the phone.
- Their neighbour Phil finally tells them that their landlady is not around but has left the key for them.
- There's a note from Lily in the envelope, but it's addressed to Elizabeth and Holly.
- The first thing they do once they are inside the house is to use the bathroom and switch on the television.
- A ringing noise from a computer alerts them to a webcam call from Lily.
- As they introduce themselves to each other, Lily gets Hannes name wrong and immediately apologizes.
- Lily informs the boys that the girls will arrive at six o'clock.
- When the girls arrive, they ask for a word in private.
- Meanwhile, Nino and Hannes decide to make dinner for the girls to win them over.
- Elisabeth tells Holly that she doesn't like the two guys in the house.
- Holly can convince Elizabeth to give it a try.
- When the boys have served tea, the four of them talk a little bit..
- Nino suggests that the boys can sleep in a tent in the garden.
- The girls say that they are ok with sharing the house.
- Hannes explains that he will be doing an eight month course on how to build a flying robot.
- Holly is doing a course on teaching English as a foreign language while Elizabeth wants to become an artist.
- Nino says he's looking for a job.
- As they are talking, an e-mail from Lily arrives.
- She has left shepherd's pie for her lodgers to eat.
- Nino sets out to finish cooking the food.