

Streetstyle Bloggers take pictures of interesting people they meet in the street. They post their photos online and write a couple of sentences about the fashion in the photo. – Create your own Streetstyle blogpost! Choose a still from “Flirt English“. Write a blogpost about what the person in the picture is wearing. Find a headline for your post. We have given an example on this page. The language support will also be helpful.

Is it going to rain? – Elz, Brighton

No need to be worried: With her customized fedora and her warm wollen scarfs from Peru, all very colourful, Elz from Brighton is very well protected from wind and weather. “I just don’t want my clothes to get wet,“ says the young London-born designer. At Brighton’s car boot sale, she is trying to become known in the vintage fashion business. We think her outfit is great!

Language support

(to) dress well/badly/casually/formally/smartly – (to) be in/out of fashion – (to) go out of style – (to) be striped/plaid/dotted – Accessories like belts, handbags, scarves, gloves, hats or jewellery really make the outfit come together. – These clothes are made out of... – This outfit is very dressy. – I can’t afford haute-couture fashion, I have to buy my clothes ready-to-wear. – The lining in this coat is very thick and warm. – Pleated skirts still seem old-fashioned to me, but apparently they are coming back in style. – This tailored pants suit is really elegant, yet urban. – I like this shirt because the collar, seams and pockets are very well tailored. – With the low waist and the lacy hem, this skirt has a very unique style. – A true fashionista will never just wear what the brands and designers tell her to wear.