

3A: Let's go on holiday, Red!

Big Ben

Big Ben is the biggest clock in London. It is 96 meters high.

Tower Bridge

Tower Bridge is more than one hundred years old. When big ships come along the river Thames, the bridge opens to let the ships go through.

London Eye

The London Eye is a 135-meter tall ferris wheel. It offers a view of the town.

Thames

London lies on the river Thames.

British Museum

The British Museum is one of the biggest museums in the world. It has more than seven million objects.

Buckingham Palace

Buckingham Palace is the home of Queen Elizabeth.

Tower of London

The Tower of London is an old castle. It is over 800 years old. First it was a fortress, then a prison. Now there lie the crown jewels.

London Underground

The London Underground is also called tube because it travels along tubes under the ground. It is the oldest underground system in the world.

Double-decker

A typical bus in London is red and is called double-decker bus because of its two decks.