Flirt English – Fireworks and Farewell

What could happen in an episode set three month after the evening of the party? Form groups of four. Write a synopsis of the next episode. When you're done, exchange your synopsis with another group and give them feedback.

Pointers on how to write your synopsis:
- Each group member picks a character: Nino, Elizabeth, Holly or Hannes.
- Answer the questions on this worksheet for the character you picked.
- Discuss your answers with the other group members.
- Then brainstorm on the basis of your answers to find a storyline for the next episode. Write down the synopsis (a short summary). It should not be much longer than six to ten sentences.
- Give your synopsis to another group. They can write their feedback in the table under your text.

When the last episode ended, what were _____ exact plans for the future?

_____

_____

_____

In your opinion, what is most likely to happen with those plans?

_____

_____

_____

What questions about _____ should be answered in the next episode?

_____

_____

Synopsis: What happens in the next episode?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Flirt English – Fireworks and Farewell

planet schule

🔵 Feedback: Give the other group feedback by filling out the table. Each group member picks one category (idea, plausibility, questions, language) and writes his/ her feedback in the appropriate column (happy, neutral, unhappy). Then you as a group decide on an overall judgement. Write down your reason in the last line of the table.

	☺	☐	☹
Idea: How original is the storyline?
Language Support Your storyline is (very) original/funny/entertaining. – To me, your storyline is a bit boring/predictable/ conservative. – I didn't feel entertained/amused by your storyline at all. – I liked the part about… . However, the part about… I felt was… . – I feel your idea might benefit from… .
Plausibility: Are the ideas true to the characters? Would they really act like that?
Language Support I thought your storyline was (very) plausible/ mostly plausible/ not plausible at all because… – It's not logical that… – That… should do… is very coherent. – Maybe it would be more plausible for… to… – The character… would act differently because…
Questions: Does the episode answer all questions?
Language Support Your episode has left me wondering about… – Your storyline has answered all my questions. – Maybe the viewer will ask himself… – There are some open questions about…

Flirt English – Fireworks and Farewell

	☺	😐	☹
Language: Did the writers use correct grammar, correct spelling and the right words?

Language Support
In my opinion your use of the English language is excellent/good/adequate. – Your grammar/ spelling/ vocabulary might still need some work. – There were very few/ a few/ a couple/ a lot of mistakes.

Overall Result: What is your overall verdict on this synopsis?

Language Support
Overall, we liked/didn't like your storyline (very much). – In conclusion, we would suggest you work on… – Apart from…, we liked your storyline a lot. – Maybe your storyline would benefit from… – We can see you put a lot of thought/effort into…