

My Hero – With Terry Deary

Matching statements to chapters

These are quotes from the film. Do you remember who utters them?
Write down the names in the brackets behind the statements.
Then match the statements to the chapters titles.
Write the numbers in the box next to the quotes.

Part 1: Advice
(01:39 Min.)

Part 2: Top Tips
(03:42 Min.)

Part 3: The Mentor
(04:39 Min.)

Part 4: Research
(06:21 Min.)

Part 5: The Task
(07:04 Min.)

Part 6: Inspire
(09:29 Min.)

Part 7: Future
(14:15 Min.)

“All stories should have a good start so you pull the reader in.” ()

“Go into the bookshops and look at the best-sellers.” ()

“You want me to give you my tips so you can beat me at my own game?” ()

“Who is Terry Deary? In case you don’t know, have a look here. Terry Deary – best-selling author and television personality” ()

(About living near Greenwich Park:) “That’s what inspired me to write my story.” ()

“I’ve got to get the facts right!” ()

“There’s things in here that you just can’t find on the internet.” ()

“Every author would like his book published.” ()

“It’s kind of important that it’s quite snappy and quite to the point, too, with this kind of theatre. But then, obviously, you have to get all the historical facts in as well which must be tricky.” ()

“You’ve got to be prepared to be famous – how to deal with the press!” ()

“Writers don’t matter. It’s the reader out there who’s most important. If they don’t read our books, we might as well not write them.” ()

“When you used dialogue – when you made your characters speak – I found that was more exciting than some of your description even.” ()

“I’ve been writing since I can remember.” ()

“The other things people say to me is: I’ve got a good start to my story, but I don’t know how it ends. And guess what I say to them? Write the ending first!” ()

“The trouble is: After six weeks of touring a great play, we’d put the costumes away and the characters disappeared.” ()

“He is one of Britain’s best-selling authors of the 21st century. I want that to be me one day.” ()

Kontrollblatt
Lösungen aus dem Film

Part 1: Advice
(01:39 Min.)

Part 2: Top Tips
(03:42 Min.)

Part 3: The Mentor
(04:39 Min.)

Part 4: Research
(06:21 Min.)

Part 5: The Task
(07:04 Min.)

Part 6: Inspire
(09:29 Min.)

Part 7: Future
(14:15 Min.)

“Who is Terry Deary? In case you don’t know, have a look here. Terry Deary – best-selling author and television personality” (Huck)	1
---	----------

“He is one of Britain’s best-selling authors of the 21st century. I want that to be me one day.” (Huck)	1
---	----------

“All stories should have a good start so you pull the reader in.” (Terry Deary)	1
---	----------

“The other things people say to me is: I’ve got a good start to my story, but I don’t know how it ends. And guess what I say to them? Write the ending first!” (Terry Deary)	1
--	----------

“You want me to give you my tips so you can beat me at my own game?” (Terry Deary)	2
--	----------

“Writers don’t matter. It’s the reader out there who’s most important. If they don’t read our books, we might as well not write them.” (Terry Deary)	2
--	----------

“Go into the bookshops and look at the best-sellers.” (Terry Deary)	2
---	----------

(About living near Greenwich Park:) “That’s what inspired me to write my story.” (Huck)	3
---	----------

“The trouble is: After six weeks of touring a great play, we’d put the costumes away and the characters disappeared.” (Terry Deary)	3
---	----------

“I’ve got to get the facts right!” (Huck)	4
---	----------

“There’s things in here that you just can’t find on the internet.” (Huck)	4
---	----------

“I’ve been writing since I can remember.” (Huck)	5
--	----------

“When you used dialogue – when you made your characters speak – I found that was more exciting than some of your description even.” (Terry Deary)	5
---	----------

“It’s kind of important that it’s quite snappy and quite to the point, too, with this kind of theatre. But then, obviously, you have to get all the historical facts in as well which must be tricky.” (Actor)	6
--	----------

“You’ve got to be prepared to be famous – how to deal with the press!” (Terry Deary)	7
--	----------