

Videoskript: David and Red in London

Telephone Box

David: In England telephone boxes are red.
Red: Red.
David: And in a telephone box you can make a phone call for ten pence.
Shall we make a phone call, Red?
Okay, jump in.
Okay, Red. Put the money in the phone.
Hello, Holly, it's David.
Red: And Red.
David: We'll be there in ten minutes. Okay. Bye.
And that is an English telephone box.

Big Ben

David: Behind me you can see one of the most famous places in London: Big Ben.
Big Ben is also called the Great Bell, because of the clock at the top of the tower.
The tower is ninety-six meters high. There are 334 steps from the bottom to the top.
And inside the tower there are four mechanics called the "Keepers of the Clock".
Their job is to make sure that the clock is always on time.

School Uniform

David: In England all school children have to wear school uniforms, both in primary schools and in secondary schools.
Every day before Holly goes to school she has to put on her school uniform.
Are you ready, Holly?
This is Holly's school uniform. But it's her summer school uniform.
Holly also has a uniform for winter.
Okay, Holly, you can go to school now.
